

The converter of various quantities.

Unit testing: testing the section for converting different number systems.

Integration testing: testing the currency conversion function with the current exchange rate using the API of a state bank.

System testing: testing of a complete website.

Acceptance testing: testing of the finished website by the customer.

Alpha testing: testing the website to identify missed bugs.

Beta testing: testing the website to identify any remaining minor bugs.